FAQs

What is an apprenticeship?

An apprenticeship is the chance to complete a national recognised qualification while working in a paid job. Alongside their day-to-day role, an apprentice combines practical learning with study provided by a college, university or training partner.

Who can enrol for an apprenticeship?

Apprenticeships are for anyone above the age of 16 who live in England and isn't in full time education. There isn't an age limit.

Cost of apprenticeship to employee

The full apprenticeship is funded between your employer and government, with no cost to the individual.

Who should I speak to if I would like more information?

Your line manager.
